We all want to use technology and have fun online, but we all want to keep safe and act responsibly.

This guide covers all technology, including computers, mobile phones and games consoles.

Remember, it's always safest to create your own password.

" Think before you send a message to make sure you don't offend anyone. You could upset someone. Think before you post messages or emails. "

Don't put other people's photographs online without their permission. Treat other people's photos with respect, and remember it may upset your friend. Always ask permission.

Information on the internet is not always correct. You may believe something that isn't true. It's a good idea to check at least 3 websites.

Don't reply if you receive a message that makes you feel uncomfortable or upsets you. The messages could continue and get even worse. Keep a copy as evidence. Show a trusted adult. Use the 'CEOP Report' button, if necessary.

Don't put a personal photo online. People could copy it and give it away. It is better to use an avatar or cartoon. Make sure your mum, dad or carer check and approve any pictures you use.

Don't open or reply if you receive a message or attachment from someone you don't know.

If anybody asks for personal information Don't reply - Don't delete Tell a trusted adult.

Don't give out personal information. Strangers may try to contact you in real life.

" If you see someone being cyberbullied, don't join in or ignore it. You become part of the cyberbullying. Tell a trusted adult. "

Don't meet up with someone you've only met online. They might not be who they say they are. Keep online friends as online friends. Tell a trusted adult if someone asks to meet you.
